1. Pending Applications Over One Year Old

Issue: Staff has been requested to report to the Committee every meeting the number of pending applications that are more than 1 year old. Currently we have 36. Staff will review and confirm that the other 33 have not submitted all application materials and mark them "expired" as time permits.

Applicant will not be required to do anything until the License Committee and the Board have decided on the course of action.

3. 21 NCAC 32B .2001 Expedited Application for Physician License

Issue: The question has been raised as to whether it was the Board's intent that an applicant using the expedited license process has to have "current certification" or "certification or recertification within the past 10 years"? Sections (a) and (b)(7) of the Rule are not in sync.

Committee Recommendation: Ask Legal Department to study and suggest changes to bring the rule to a more appropriate state to reflect the Board's original intent that "current" certification is required.

Board Action: Task Dr. Kirby to send letters to all appropriate individuals at NC teaching institutions reminding them of the appropriate use of the MSFL license.

Issue: Review and approval of PA Education Verification Form.

Committee Recommendation: Approve PA Education Verification Form.

Board Action: Approve PA Education Verification Form.

2. Remediation and Probation.

Issue: Marcus Jimison discussed the differences between remediation and probation. Remediation is typically used to correct an identified deficiency. Probation is a sanction that is imposed after a finding of some type of misconduct and typically involves imposing a trial period of some time for the licensee not to repeat the misconduct. Remedial actions usually are private, but not always, and can involve having the licensee take additional CME, undergo a mentoring program, or submit to an assessment, treatment or therapy. Probations are always public disciplinary actions and can include a component of remediation. For example, Licensee

A is placed on probation for one year during which time he must complete focused CME as recommended by a CPEP evaluation.

Committee Recommendation: For information.

Board Action: For information.

Open Session NC Emergency Medical Services

1. Proposed Change to G.S. 143-519(b)

Issue: David Henderson discussed. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 143-519(a) establishes the Emergency Medical Services Disciplinary Committee to review and make recommendations “regarding all disciplinary matters relating to credentialing of emergency medical services personnel.”

It is difficult to find current physician members of the NCMB who are able/willing to serve on this Committee in addition to all their NCMB work – particularly if they live outside the Raleigh area. It would help if the statute was changed to permit former NCMB members to serve.

Committee Recommendation:

Approve working with DHHS to modify N.C. Gen. Stat. § 143-519(b) to read as follows:

(b) The Emergency Medical Services Disciplinary Committee shall consist of seven members appointed by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to serve four year terms. Two of the members shall be currently practicing local EMS physician medical directors. One member each shall be a current or former physician member of the North Carolina Medical Board, a current EMS administrator, a current EMS educator, and two currently practicing and credentialed EMS personnel, one of whom shall be an emergency medical technician paramedic.

1. Old Business
 - a. Update on "CPEP East." Ms. Apperson reported to the committee that Beth Korinek, CEO of CPEP, and Ms. Anne Cox, CPEP Board President (and recently retired General Counsel of COPIC) and Gerilyn McGaughan, CPEP staff, will travel to North Carolina June 12-15. They will meet with representatives of the North Carolina Medical Society, Academy of Physician Assistants, and Medical Mutual Insurance Company.
2. New Business

- a. The committee had a conference call briefing with Ms. Paula Guy, RN, CEO of the Georgia Partnership for Telehealth, and Ms. Rena Brewer, the Chairman of the Southeast Telehealth Resource. The Georgia Partnership for Telehealth, an independent non-profit entity originally begun in 2004 with $11 million in trust funds from the Georgia Anthem-Wellpoint merger with a mission to increase health care availability in rural and underserved areas, is apparently regarded as one of the nation's leaders in providing telehealth services. Ms. Brewer outlined her organization's history and success. In 2007 the group had 35 telehealth locations and 20 physician specialists. Last year, they had over 300 locations and over 200 physicians of all specialties and hosted 40,000 physician/patient encounters—a number expected to double this year.

The program relies on T1 lines into all facilities, with the main technological hub housed in a rural hospital. The Partnership provides technology, credentialing, scheduling, IT support and training for liaisons. Ms. Guy described a clinical encounter, emphasizing there is a licensed health care professional (“presenter”) at the presenting site (where the patient is located) and the remote physician sees the patient in real-time. She identified telemedicine as a means to better oversee mid-levels and clarified that primary care is typically practiced within the context of an established physician-patient relationship. Sites exist in nursing homes, federally qualified health centers, and schools. Studies of school-based clinics seem to suggest their presence significantly reduces over-utilization of ER services and allows school nurses to consult with physicians and pharmacists in ways previously unavailable.

In 2006 the Georgia legislature mandated health insurance coverage for telemedicine visits and Medicaid reimburses as well. The Partnership is now largely self-sustaining by charging a participation fee to physicians ($195/month) and initiating sites ($500/month [presenting sites are not required by law to be reimbursed but the cost is frequently offset by x-ray, lab tests and prescriptions filled where patient is physically located]). The current President of the Georgia Composite Board is a family practice physician who practices telemedicine with the Partnership. Once an outspoken critic of telemedicine, she is now a champion. The Partnership has worked with the Georgia Board on its telemedicine policy and a new iteration is expected to be released in June. Ms. Guy would be willing to speak to the full Board in person about the Partnership.

Thomas R. Hill, MD
Secretary/Treasurer

CURRENT POSITION STATEMENT:

Availability of physicians to their patients

It is the position of the North Carolina Medical Board that once a physician-patient relationship is created, it is the duty of the physician to provide care whenever it is needed or to assure that proper physician backup is available to take care of the patient during or outside normal office hours.

The physician must clearly communicate to the patient orally and provide instructions in writing for securing after hours care if the physician is not generally available after hours or if the physician discontinues after hours coverage.

(Adopted July 1993) (Amended May 1996, January 2001, October 2003, July 2006)

PROPOSED POSITION STATEMENT:

Availability of licensees ~~physicians~~ to their patients

It is the position of the North Carolina Medical Board that once a relationship between a licensee and a patient ~~physician-patient relationship~~ is created, it is the duty of the licensee ~~physician~~ to provide care whenever it is needed or to assure that proper physician backup by a healthcare provider is available to take care of the patient during or outside normal office hours.

If the licensee is not going to be available after hours, the licensee must provide clear instructions to the patient for securing after-hours care. It is the responsibility of the licensee to ensure that the patient has sufficient information regarding how to secure after-hours care.

~~The physician must clearly communicate to the patient orally and provide instructions in writing for securing after hours care if the physician is not generally available after hours or if the physician discontinues after hours coverage.~~

It should be noted that these duties are applicable to a licensee whether the licensee is practicing telemedicine or practicing medicine through traditional means.

(Adopted July 1993) (Amended May 1996, January 2001, October 2003, July 2006, _____)

CURRENT POSITION STATEMENT:

Sexual exploitation of patients

It is the position of the North Carolina Medical Board that sexual exploitation of a patient is unprofessional conduct and undermines the public trust in the medical profession. Sexual exploitation encompasses a wide range of behaviors which have in common the intended sexual gratification of the physician. These behaviors include sexual intercourse with a patient (consensual or non-consensual), touching genitalia with ungloved hands, sexually suggestive comments, asking patients for a date, inappropriate exploration of the patients or physician's sexual phantasias, touching or exposing genitalia, breast, or other parts of the body in ways not dictated by an appropriate and indicated physical examination, exchanging sexual favors for services. Sexual exploitation is grounds for the suspension, revocation, or other action against a physician's license. This position statement is based upon the Federation of State Medical Board's guidelines regarding sexual boundaries.

Sexual misconduct by physicians and other health care practitioners is a form of behavior that adversely affects the public welfare and harms patients individually and collectively. Physician sexual misconduct exploits the physician-patient relationship, is a violation of the public trust, and is often known to cause harm, both mentally and physically, to the patient.

Regardless of whether sexual misconduct is viewed as emanating from an underlying form of impairment, it is unarguably a violation of the public's trust.

As with other disciplinary actions taken by the Board, Board action against a medical licensee for sexual exploitation of a patient is published by the Board, the nature of the offense being clearly specified. It is also released to the news media, to state and federal government, and to medical and professional organizations.

(Adopted May 1991) (Amended April 1996, January 2001, September 2006)

PROPOSED CHANGES:

Sexual exploitation of patients

It is the position of the North Carolina Medical Board that sexual exploitation of a patient is unprofessional conduct and undermines the public trust in the medical profession and harms patients both individually and collectively. This Position Statement is based, in part, upon the Federation of State Medical Board's guidelines regarding sexual boundaries ("FSMB Guidelines").

Sexual behavior between a licensee and a patient is never diagnostic or therapeutic. Such behavior may be verbal or physical and may include expressions of thoughts and feelings or gestures that are sexual or that reasonably may be construed by the patient as sexual.

The FSMB Guidelines define and distinguish between two types of professional sexual misconduct: sexual impropriety and sexual violation. Both types of sexual misconduct could constitute a basis for disciplinary action by the Board.

Sexual impropriety may comprise behavior, gestures, or expressions that are seductive, sexually suggestive, disrespectful of patient privacy, or sexually demeaning to a patient, that may include, but are not limited to:

1. Neglecting to employ disrobing or draping practices respecting the patient's privacy, or deliberately watching a patient dress or undress;
2. Subjecting a patient to an intimate examination in the presence of medical students or other parties without the patient's informed consent or in the event such informed consent has been withdrawn;
3. Examination or touching of genital mucosal areas without the use of gloves;
4. Inappropriate comments about or to the patient, including but not limited to, making sexual comments about a patient's body or underclothing, making sexualized or sexually demeaning comments to a patient, criticizing the patient's sexual orientation, making comments about potential sexual performance during an examination;
5. Using the physician-patient relationship to solicit a date or romantic relationship;
6. Initiation by the physician of conversation regarding the sexual problems, preferences, or fantasies of the physician;
7. Performing an intimate examination or consultation without clinical justification;
8. Performing an intimate examination or consultation without explaining to the patient the need for such examination or consultation even when the examination or consultation is pertinent to the issue of sexual function or dysfunction; and
9. Requesting details of sexual history or sexual likes or dislikes when not clinically indicated for the type of examination or consultation.

Sexual violation may include physical sexual contact between a physician and patient, whether or not initiated by the patient, and engaging in any conduct with a patient that is sexual or may be reasonably interpreted as sexual, including but not limited to:

1. Sexual intercourse, genital to genital contact;
2. Oral to genital contact;
3. Oral to anal contact and genital to anal contact;
4. Kissing in a romantic or sexual manner;
5. Touching breasts, genitals, or any sexualized body part for any purpose other than appropriate examination or treatment, or where the patient has refused or has withdrawn consent;
6. Encouraging the patient to masturbate in the presence of the physician or masturbation by the physician while the patient is present; and
7. Offering to provide practice-related services, such as drugs, in exchange for sexual favors.

The Board also refers its licensees to the Board's Position Statement entitled "Guidelines for avoiding misunderstandings during physical examinations."

(Adopted May 1991) (Amended April 1996, January 2001, September 2006, May 2012)

REQUEST:

Mr. Brosius,

In response to our telephone conversation today and at the direction of the Chief of the Office of EMS, I am submitting the following issue asking for an official ruling of the Medical Board. The Board's position will be shared with the state's Emergency Medical Services and Specialty Care Transport Program Medical Directors.

NC General Statute 143-514 places the practice standards for emergency medical personnel under the authority of the NC Medical Board. Using these established standards, NC General Statute 143-508 requires the NC Medical Care Commission to promulgate rules consistent with the Medical Boards practice standards. These rules are 10A NCAC 13P. In order for a credentialed paramedic to practice invasive skills, these rules require the paramedic to practice under the license of the EMS System Medical Director. This Medical Director must be a licensed physician in North Carolina. Having said this, a situation has presented itself to our office that we are unable to address. The scenario is:

A physician is on duty in the emergency department of a hospital. A patient arrives that, following assessment, is determined to have overdosed on an illegal narcotic. This physician provides emergency care and the patient is stabilized. This physician serves the local EMS System as their Medical Director. The patient is a paramedic that functions under the license of this physician. The patient (paramedic) was not on duty when treated by the physician (their Medical Director) in the Emergency Department.

The dilemma for the physician is twofold. One, he has established a physician / patient relationship with this individual. Two, this individual is a paramedic that practices under his medical license. Does the physician have an obligation to maintain the patient's confidentiality, or is the physician obligated to report the substance abuse matter to the paramedic's state credentialing agency? The physician, in his role as system medical director, thinks his knowledge that a paramedic practicing under his license may be a potential risk to the public and those patients under the paramedic's pre-hospital care. However, ethically the physician realizes the rights of this patient may override his ability to address this situation.

Although the EMS rules do allow the medical director the authority to suspend, pending due process review, an individual from practicing under his license, if the medical director exercises this authority he will be required to disclose his reason for suspension during the paramedic's due process hearing. Also, there is nothing in either the EMS laws or rules that mandate a medical director disclose to the state EMS office his suspension of any person practicing under his license.

Taking into account the his patient's rights (the paramedic), the right of the public to be safe, the rights of the paramedic's patients, the physician's liabilities as both caregiver and medical director, etc., how would the Board advise a physician to handle such a situation?

I would like to express my appreciation to you and the Board in advance for assistance in resolving this matter. If you have any questions or need clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me at the office phone number listed below.

Donnie

Donnie S. Sides, Operations Manager
North Carolina Office of Emergency Medical Services

CURRENT POSITION STATEMENT:

Care of patient undergoing surgery or other invasive procedure*

The evaluation, diagnosis, and care of the surgical patient is primarily the responsibility of the surgeon. He or she alone bears responsibility for ensuring the patient undergoes a preoperative assessment appropriate to the procedure. The assessment shall include a review of the patient's data and an independent diagnosis by the operating surgeon of the condition requiring surgery. The operating surgeon shall have a detailed discussion with each patient regarding the diagnosis and the nature of the surgery, advising the patient fully of the risks involved. It is also the responsibility of the operating surgeon to reevaluate the patient immediately prior to the procedure.

It is the responsibility of the operating surgeon to assure safe and readily available postoperative care for each patient on whom he or she performs surgery. It is not improper to involve other licensed health care practitioners in postoperative care so long as the operating surgeon maintains responsibility for such care. The postoperative note must reflect the findings encountered in the individual patient and the procedure performed.

When identical procedures are done on a number of patients, individual notes should be done for each patient that reflect the specific findings and procedures of that operation.

(Invasive procedures includes, but is not limited to, endoscopies, cardiac catheterizations, interventional radiology procedures, etc. Surgeon refers to the provider performing the procedure)

This position statement was formerly titled, "Care of the Surgical Patients."*

(Adopted September 1991) (Amended March 2001, September 2006)

CURRENT POSITION STATEMENT:

Writing of prescriptions

It is the position of the North Carolina Medical Board that prescriptions should be written in ink or indelible pencil or typewritten or electronically printed and should be signed by the practitioner at the time of issuance. Quantities should be indicated in both numbers AND words, e.g., 30 (thirty). Such prescriptions must not be written on pre-signed prescription blanks.

Each prescription for a DEA controlled substance (2, 2N, 3, 3N, 4, and 5) should be written on a separate prescription blank. Multiple medications may appear on a single prescription blank only when none are DEA-controlled.

No prescriptions should be issued for a patient in the absence of a documented physician-patient relationship.

No prescription should be issued by a practitioner for his or her personal use. (See Position Statement entitled "Self-Treatment and Treatment of Family Members and Others with Whom Significant Emotional Relationships Exist.")

The practice of pre-signing prescriptions is unacceptable to the Board.

It is the responsibility of those who prescribe controlled substances to fully comply with applicable federal and state laws and regulations. Links to these laws and regulations may be found on the Board's Web site (www.ncmedboard.org).
