

Prescribing Courses

Disclaimer

The courses noted below should be viewed as a point of reference from which the licensee may begin a search for CME that fulfills the requirements requested by the Board and are structured to engage active learning in support of improved practice. This is not an exclusive list of courses vetted by the North Carolina Medical Board. We welcome feedback from licensees who opt to take these or other similar courses; comments on the value of the experience are encouraged. Please send all feedback to boardcompliance@ncmedboard.org.

1. AMA Online Learning & Continuing Medical Education Resources: <https://www.ama-assn.org/education/online-learning-cme>
2. Case Western University: Controlled Substance Prescribing: Pain, Anxiety, Insomnia
<https://case.edu/medicine/cme/courses-activities/intensive-course-series>
3. PACE, San Diego: Physician Prescribing Course. <http://www.paceprogram.ucsd.edu/CME/Prescribing>
4. CPEP – Center for Personalized Education for Professionals: Prescribing Controlled Drugs: Critical Issues and Common Pitfalls
<http://www.cpepdoc.org/cpep-courses/prescribing-controlled-drugs/>
5. Vanderbilt University: (In person course) Prescribing Controlled Drugs: <https://medsites.vumc.org/cph/prescribing-controlled-drugs>
6. North Carolina AHEC: (North Carolina based) Search the database for live and online CME classes.
<https://www.ncahec.net/courses-and-events?search=opioid>
7. American Society of Addiction Medicine: <https://www.asam.org/education/resources/pcss-mat>
8. American Academy of Family Physicians: Comprehensive List of All AAFP Certified CME: <https://www.aafp.org/cme.html>
9. NC Medical Board website: <https://www.ncmedboard.org/landing-page/controlled-substances-cme-requirement>
10. Specialty Organizations and Malpractice Carriers: May also have CME Resources Available.